Campbell County Department of Recreation

The Campbell County Little Theater group is now beginning rehearsals for the musical production, "Annie Get Your Gun", to be presented the first two weeks in October in four areas of the County. The bulk of the cast has been selected, but there are still vacancies for five (5) men in the cast. Two of these male roles involve only speaking parts; three parts will require singing in groups. Any age, high school and up will be acceptable. Men who are interested in appearing in this show should call the Campbell County Recreation Department.

The play is being directed by Dr. Robert Hailey, head of the Drama Department at Lynchburg College. The project is sponsored by the Campbell County Recreation Department and is partially funded by a grant received from the Virginia Commission of Arts and Humanities.

Primary School Executive Council Meets

The Executive Council of the Appomattox Primary School Parent - Teachers Assoc. met Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Torrence.

The Council made plans for PTA Meetings during the forthcoming 1975-76 school year to be held the third Thursdays in Sept., Nov., January, March and May.

Tentative program topics will be:

Sept. - Recognition of School Faculty

Nov. - Open House and Book Fair

January - Buzz Sessions

March - Bicentennial Theme, Involving Students

May - Parent-Child Relationships & Election of Officers

Refreshments will be served at the September and May meetings, and a nursery will be available at each meeting, under the direction of Mrs. James C. Whitehead.

Also discussed were fund raising projects and plans for a membership drive in Sept. Membership fee is $1.00 per person and available to parents of school age children as well as other adults. Parents and interested citizens will be urged to join, and take an active role in the meetings and projects which will be centered around promoting a better environment in which children can work and play. The Council also developed committees for different phases of school related matters, to be headed by PTA members. Persons interested in committee work or other phases of the Parent Teachers Organization are urged to contact the Appomattox Primary School or the PTA President.
